April is National Credit Union Youth Month

Watch Their Savings Grow as They Grow!

Start a Family Tradition of Savings

We at Grove City Area Federal Credit Union are celebrating National Credit Union Youth Month by helping our members help their children become lifelong savers. During the month of April, all youth age 17 and younger who open an account will receive two special bonuses: their first $5.00 deposit and a gift from their credit union! Stop by today to open a youth account and take advantage of these special offers—and start a young member on a lifetime journey of savings.

Attention, High School Seniors!

Congratulations to our graduating seniors! If you're taking the next step in continuing your education, let us help. Members who are high school seniors pursuing post-secondary education—either college or vocational school—for the 2019-2020 school year are eligible to apply for one of three $500 scholarships! Applications are available at both GCAFCU offices or on our website at www.gcafcu.org. Be sure to take advantage of this exciting opportunity by returning your completed application by Friday, April 26, 2019.

Educational Workshop: Buying A Car
